

Helen Duprey, the mother of retired Dept. Sgt.-at-Arms Harry Laughman, passed away on Dec. 1. Helen's daughter-in-law Bea Laughman (a Past Dept. Auxiliary President) and her granddaughter Sharon McCullough (current Dept. Auxiliary Secretary-Treasurer) both work at State HQ in Harrisburg. She had six children with Harry being the oldest. Her love for our nation and those who defend freedom provided family leadership that inspired her children, grandchildren and extended family to be patriotic citizens devoted to their nation and God.

Services will be held on Tuesday, December 6. Viewing will be from 10-11 with the service beginning at 11:00 at Hoffman Roth Funeral Home at 219 N Hanover Street, Carlisle PA. Burial will be in Westminster Cemetery.

Helen was a life member of the Ladies Auxiliary. Memorial contributions can be made to the VFW Ladies Cancer Fund at 4002 Fenton Avenue, Harrisburg PA 17109.

The family thanks everyone for keeping them in your thoughts and prayers as they mourn this week and through the holidays. Cards can be sent to Harry at 350 Grahams Woods Rd., Carlisle PA 17015.
